

GENESIS'19

Genesis'19 - C'est la vie, The Annual Cultural Fest of Maharaja Surajmal Group of Institutions was successfully organised on January 11th. It was a one day extravaganza comprising of various cultural inter and intra-college events. The fest commenced with a speech by Sh. S.P. Singh, Hon'ble Chairman, Surajmal Memorial Educational Society encouraging all participants to put their best foot forward. It was followed by lamp lighting accompanied by a Ganesh Vandana performed by the students of the institute. To add the vibrancy of the atmosphere, spectacular performances such as the Kuchipudi and Rajasthani folk dances, flute show, a medley of old songs and a patriotic song were presented. After the opening ceremony, began Mosiqui, the musical show. It was an inter college event with two segments, SwarKrit (Indian Solo Singing) and the Viral Voice (Western Solo Singing). The competitors had a controlling influence on the audience which could be seen humming along. Thereafter, came in line the dance event. It had two categories viz. Move Bizarre (Solo dance) and Feel The Beat (Group Dance). The liveliness in the ambience of the auditorium increased with every single performance making it irresistible for the audience to not sway. To keep the audience engrossed there were multiple power packed filler performances. Meanwhile, various other exciting events namely Rangoli Making, Face Painting, Innovision- The Photography event, Street Play, Mono Acting, Cooking Without Fire, PUBG, Cricket Auction and Go Green Exhibition were being held in the college premises. A very enthusiastic participation by a good number of well prepared and high-spirited competitors was observed.

The most looked-for event of the day was Mr and Ms Genesis wherein participants competed for titles by showcasing their talents and presenting the best version of themselves overall. All three rounds of this event were a source of non-stop entertainment for the ever-cheering crowd.

The commendable efforts of all the event coordinators, event heads and chief organizers along with the meticulous planning of the chief advisors and constant support of the faculty members helped put up a zestful and memorable fiesta, a visual spectacle!
