With a diverse and influential community of over 3,000 member companies, NASSCOM spans the entire spectrum of the industry.

Details of the Event-

The seminar was held on 20th September 2024 at Seminar Hall 206, MSIT, from 12:30 PM to 2:30 PM. Ms. Shreya Chakraborty, an accomplished professional and expert in communication skills, was invited as the guest speaker. She delivered an insightful talk on the importance of communication in the workplace, particularly in the context of engineering and technology careers.

The session covered a range of topics, including:

- The role of communication skills in career progression
- Balancing technical expertise with interpersonal skills
- Effective ways to communicate in professional settings

Ms. Chakraborty's presentation was well-structured and included real-world examples, making it highly engaging for the attendees.

Participation-

The seminar was attended by approximately 80-90 students from the 2nd and 3rd year of the ECE and EEE departments. The students were keen participants, actively engaging in discussions and posing questions during the interactive Q&A session.

NASSCOM Team-

The NASSCOM team consisted of four members, including Ms. Shreya Chakraborty. The team shared their insights on the essential balance between technical and communication skills, which is crucial for the holistic development of engineering professionals. Their participation greatly enhanced the depth and quality of the session.
